

Certified Environmental Access Consultants

Examination Content

The online examination consists of 125 multiple-choice questions covering the five core knowledge domains, principles of design and practice in the field.

Examination Domain 1

The Impact of Disability and Aging: Demographics of disability impacting the home and work environment, aging factors, function and safety issues.

Examination Domain 2

The Effects of National Health Care and Disability Systems: Legislation, community resources, roles of health care professionals, and other pertinent systems factors that directly affect decisions and recommendations by an environmental access specialist.

Examination Domain 3

Environmental Access Concepts and Application: Appropriate communication, documentation, the role of the environmental access specialist, and related concepts.

Examination Domain 4

The Environmental Access Industry: Benefit systems, pay sources and cost benefit analysis.

Examination Domain 5

Legal and Ethical Responsibilities of the Environmental Access Specialist: Issues of confidentiality, ethical conflicts, legal issues and ramifications.